

Questions to answer with internet research:

Mouth:

In the mouth, saliva has 2 important roles. What are they?

- 1.
- 2.

What parts of the mouth assist in moving food to the next part of the digestive system?

Esophagus:

How long is an average adult's esophagus?

How do the muscles in the esophagus move food through the digestive tract?

Stomach:

Scroll down and go to the second page. Look for the heading

"See You in the Stomach," to answer the following questions:

What are three important jobs the stomach has?

Stomach 2:

On this page, read the first paragraph under the title "All about the Abdomen," and answer the first question.

What are all of the organs that make up the abdomen?

Scroll down and go to the second page.

What are the six main causes of belly pain?

Scroll down and go the third page.

What are some ways to prevent a bellyache?

Small Intestine:

On the left side, there is a menu. Click on the words “small intestine.”

What is the main job of the small intestine?

What are the other body parts that help the small intestine do its job?

What is the purpose of the villi in the small intestine?

Large Intestine:

What happens to the liquid mix that moves from the small intestine to the large intestine?

How long can waste stay in the large intestine?